

Declaration of Interests

You should declare any interests, financial or otherwise, that you, your family or friends have that could influence, or be seen to influence, decisions that you may take on behalf of the GPhC. If you are in any doubt as to whether or not something represents an interest, you should declare it.

You should also declare any activity for which you are paid whether or not the activity relates to the GPhC.

Please enter any interests that you need to declare in the appropriate boxes below. Please continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

Name: Kirstie Hepburn

A. Pecuniary interests – direct

Full time employee of Lloyds Pharmacy

This should include, but is not restricted to:

- Any activity for which you are paid, whether or not the activity relates to matters concerning the GPhC, such as:
 - full time or part-time employment of any kind, including paid directorships
 - paid offices held
 - self-employment, such as freelance, contract or consultancy work
 - sponsorship, awards, bursaries, research grants etc.
- Ownership of any company, business or consultancy
- Direct beneficial interests or shareholdings in companies or other bodies regulated in any way by the GPhC (on your own behalf or on behalf of a spouse or infant children).

B. Pecuniary interests – indirect and relating closely to GPhC activity

Please list all indirect pecuniary interests arising from connections with bodies which have a direct financial interest in matters concerning the GPhC or from being a business partner of, or being employed by, a person with such an interest.

C. Non-pecuniary interests and associations

This includes interests arising from office-holding in and membership of professional bodies, clubs, public service and other organisations, such as:

- unpaid offices held in organisations regulated in any way by the GPhC
- unpaid membership of organisations listed above.

D. Close family interests

Please list all financial and non-financial interests of close family members and persons living in the same household as the board member that could be thought of as relevant to GPhC activity. Close family members include personal partners, parents, children (adult and minor), brothers, sisters and the personal partners of any of these.
