

Alexander Moore

Community Pharmacist employed by Rowlands

Alexander a recently registered pharmacist who currently works in a community pharmacy in Gateshead. They graduated from the University of Sunderland in 2016 and went on to do a split pre-registration year in community and academia. Following registration Alexander went into relief work for Rowlands for six months before being appointed as a branch manager.

Additional Professional Qualifications/Experience/Academic Achievements:

Currently undergoing clinical diploma

Research Interests:

Medicines Optimisation and Pharmaceutical Care

Long term involvement of community pharmacies in public health.