

Christine Walker

Specialist Antimicrobial Pharmacist, Cambridge University Hospitals

Christine is a recently registered pharmacist. She is currently working as an antimicrobial pharmacist at Addenbrooke's Hospital, where she also completed a rotational post as a resident pharmacist. Prior to this, she completed her pre-registration training as a split-post between industry and hospital, following graduation from Queen's University, Belfast.

Additional Professional Qualifications/Experience/Academic Achievements

Postgraduate Diploma with Distinction in Pharmacy Practice

Research Interests

Antimicrobials

Pharmacy Practice