Job title: Senior Lecturer in Pharmacy Practice, University of Sunderland and Palliative Care Pharmacist, St Cuthbert's Hospice

Charlotte graduated from the University of Sunderland in 2020 before undertaking a cross-sector pre-registration training year in community pharmacy and academia. Since qualifying as a pharmacist in 2021, Charlotte has been gaining multisector experience, working between palliative care, academia and community pharmacy.

Charlotte is a Palliative Care Pharmacist at St Cuthbert's Hospice in Durham, North East England. She is passionate about palliative and end of life care and is hoping to pursue her independent prescribing training in this field.

Charlotte is also a senior lecturer in pharmacy practice at the University of Sunderland – utilising her varied practice experience to contribute toward the education and training of undergraduate MPharm and OSPAP students.
