

Accreditation and Recognition panel member

Name: Fiona Barber

Team member

Job title: Deputy Chair & Independent Lay member, East Leicestershire & Rutland CCG

Fiona has spent over 40 years working in the public and voluntary sectors across the East Midlands and at national level, with experience in health, social care, public safety and regulatory issues.

Fiona's background was in policing, particularly operational command and on retirement she moved into the voluntary sector working as a Director of Services and sitting on a number of groups aimed at developing services.

She spent time as an elected member of Healthwatch Leicestershire Board, leading on social care and later representing Healthwatch on Clinical Commissioning Boards. She brought her external strategic perspective and challenge to NHSE&I as a member of the Primary Care Strategic Oversight Group and also the Clinical Priorities Advisory Group.

Fiona is currently the Deputy Chair for East Leicestershire & Rutland Clinical Commissioning Group, working to ensure Primary Care services are delivered to the local population and making the transition into an Integrated Care System.

She is also a Trustee for the Royal Air Forces Association, chairing their Welfare Committee.
