Name: Mairead Conlon

Team member

Job title: Foundation Training Year Lead at the Northern Ireland Centre for Pharmacy Learning and Development and part-time Community Pharmacist

Mairead graduated from the University of Sunderland, before undertaking her preregistration training in Belfast in 2001. From then she has practiced as a locum community pharmacist across a number of pharmacies in Northern Ireland and in the Republic of Ireland.

In 2008, Mairead took up a management position within a large multiple, including a period of secondment to Queens University Belfast, as a Teacher Practitioner. From here her interest in developing and mentoring young pharmacists began.

In 2015, Mairead was appointed to the newly developed role, of Representation Pharmacist at the Ulster Chemist Association in NI and the Community Pharmacist Co-ordinator at PACT (Primary Care and Community Together), all whilst working part-time in a Community Pharmacy in Brownlow, Craigavon.

Additionally, since 2013, Mairead has been a member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland's CPD Assessment team.

In July 2021, Mairead has taken up the role of Lead Pharmacist for the Foundation Training Year for the Northern Ireland Centre for Pharmacy Learning and Development. Within this role, Mairead is involved in the design, development and delivery of training and resources to the Foundation Year trainees in NI.
