Name: Dr Mathew Smith

Team leader

Job title: Director of Learning and Teaching, School of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences, Cardiff University

Dr Mat Smith is a Reader and Director of Learning and Teaching at Cardiff University. Mat is a pharmacist by background and continues to practise in the community setting.

He is a member of the Board of Assessors for the GPhC Registration Assessment and his pedagogic interests lie in the design, implementation and evaluation of interprofessional education.

Mat's research portfolio focuses on improving the health of older adults in social care, including individuals receiving domiciliary care and residents of care homes, through the optimisation of prescribing decision making and medicines management and the seamless care of patients across healthcare settings.
