

Get ready

Revalidation starts now:

Read the revalidation framework to make sure you understand what you need to do.

myGPhC goes live: You will be able to revalidate and renew using the updated myGPhC system. Look out for a letter with the PIN number you need to set up your account.

uptodate.org.uk goes read only: Print any CPD entries you want to keep from www.uptodate.org.uk before it is taken offline on 1 June 2018.

My renewal opens on: 1 April
My renewal is due by: 31 May
My registration expires on: 31 July

If you haven't already renewed your registration by 25 March 2018, you will need to use the updated myGPhC system to do it. You will not need to submit any revalidation records. We will send you your sign up letter in April as soon as the new system is live.

April
2018

Once you have renewed from 31 May 2018 at the latest

Using the updated myGPhC system, record four pieces of CPD that you've carried out since your last renewal

1
April
2019

Renew your registration

Submit your four CPD records as part of your renewal.

31
May 2019

Once you have renewed from 31 May 2019 at the latest

Carry out and record:

- four CPD records
- one peer discussion
- one reflective account

1
April
2020

Renew your registration

Submit your four CPD records, peer discussion and reflective account as part of your renewal.

31
May 2020