

Accreditation and Recognition panel member

Name: Rav Savania

Team member

Job title: Associate Professor of Pharmacy Education, School Director of Teaching and Learning, University of Reading

Having qualified as a Pharmacist and annotated to the register, Rav has worked in Community Pharmacy. Rav is a Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy and in his current role as the University of Reading, School of Chemistry, Food and Pharmacy, Director of Teaching and Learning, he leads the University's aims for teaching and learning.

He develops and take responsibility for the School of Pharmacy's teaching enhancement plans, teaching and learning strategy and all associated policies, with a particular focus on implementation. Taking overall responsibility for the quality management and enhancement in the School, he provides leadership in the teaching, learning and assessment in the taught programmes of the School. Rav promotes and disseminates good practice in the School with a particular passion for OSCEs, Interprofessional Education (IPE), Equality and Diversity and Wellbeing and Welfare.

Rav has an active membership on numerous committees and as part of his role he chairs the School's Boards of Studies and Student Experience committee. Working closely with Programme Directors, Rav leads on, disseminates and has oversight of quality assurance processes and procedures. He supports and delivers the University's procedures relating to student Academic Misconduct, Academic Engagement, Fitness to Study and Fitness to Practice.

Rav leads on the School's disciplinary matters and chairs the University Student Discipline Committee. He deputises as the School of Pharmacy's Exams officer. As part of this role he leads on moderation processes for examinations and teaching alike. He works closely with academics and support staff throughout the School to uphold the high-quality standards for teaching, learning and assessment.