Job title: Locum Community Pharmacist

Sekemi joined the register of Pharmacists in 2017. Upon qualification she joined Boots as a Relief Pharmacist for North West London and now works as a locum community Pharmacist around London. As a locum Pharmacist she is responsible for working within multiple locations to ensure high standards of patient care and services are delivered on a consistent basis. Sekemi is also responsible for training and educating pharmacy staff and pre-registration students on new pharmacy services, regulations and medication.

Sekemi has over four years of work experience in community pharmacy and completed her pre-registration year at Saville Chemist.

Sekemi graduated from the University of Nottingham in 2016 achieving First Class Honours. She has a real passion for pharmacy education and based her final year research project on how different teaching methods affect student learning and engagement, and enjoyment of the pharmacy course.
