Dear Mrs Martin,

Reaccreditation of the University College London MPharm degree

Thank you for sending us the accreditation reports on our new MPharm degree on 15th July 2013. We are delighted to receive confirmation that the UCL School of Pharmacy MPharm degree reaccredited for a further period of six years with no conditions and no recommendations. Thank you for the feedback from the panel of all aspects of our submission and plans.

We are very much looking forward to the imminent start of the first year and are working hard to enhance the other years of the current degree with components of the new programme, where appropriate. We are also working on our IPL strategy to introduce inter-professional learning in all four years. As we reflect on the whole process of reaccreditation, we feel that the school benefitted and continues to benefit from the strengthened team approach and greater integration of the learning, teaching and assessment.

We look forward to your return for the interim visit in due course. Please pass on our thanks to the Chair of the panel, Dr Andrew Husband and the rest of the panel for their thorough and fair approach to the whole accreditation process.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely,
